The Honorable Ted W. Myatt

County Judge of Johnson County Clerk

Cleburne, Texas

and

The Commissioners Court

Johnson County, Texas

Gentlemen:

After careful consideration I am submitting my resignation as County Attorney of Johnson County effective June 1, 1960.

It will be necessary for me to spend most of my time for the next few weeks working on matters other than County business. I don't feel that it is proper for me to stay on the County payroll unless I can devote full time to the duties of my office.

I have discussed the matter with Mr. Robert M. Mahanay who was recently elected your next County Attorney and he is quite willing and anxious to assume his duties as County Attorney immediately.

I am most grateful to the Citizens of Johnson County for the privilege of serving them as their County Attorney for the past 5 ½ years and for electing me their next District Attorney. I will, of course, assume my duties as District Attorney at the prescribed time next January.

Please accept my sincere expression of appreciation for the excellent cooperation the dedicated members of this Court and the officials of Johnson County have given me and my office.

Yours very truly,

Glyndon M. Hague
