Re: Law Enforcement Services Interlocal Agreement

Dear Judge Harmon, Sheriff Alford and Mr. Moore:

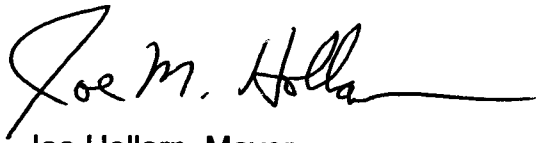

On behalf of the City of Joshua, we would like to thank you for the law enforcement services provided to the City by the Johnson County Sheriff's Office, and in particular Mike Powell. Chief Powell has done an outstanding job serving the City and its police department during the transition time between chiefs of police. His leadership brought stability to the department, and the department is now back to full staff in patrol. Pursuant to the Interlocal Agreement between Johnson County and the City, executed on or about October 1, 2013, we are providing you with thirty (30) days' notice that the last day for which law enforcement services pursuant to the Interlocal Agreement will be necessary is Friday, November 29, 2013. Effective Saturday, November 30, 2013, the City will resume all law enforcement activities in Joshua. If it will be necessary for the
