STATE OF TEXAS §

PROCLAMATION

JOHNSON COUNTY §

DEPUTY CLIFTON TAYLOR MEMORIAL CHAIR

WHEREAS, On January 14, 2008. Clifton Taylor began his career with the Johnson County Sheriff's Office, where he quickly became a popular and respected deputy; and

WHEREAS, On April 23, 2011, Deputy Taylor, along with other deputies, responded to a disturbance call on Eagle Court near Venus, Texas; and

WHEREAS, Upon arriving on the scene, the deputies began looking for a male subject who was involved in the disturbance. While conducting the search, Deputy Taylor opened a door on a shed and was met with gunfire, which resulted in him being struck and later succumbing to his wounds. The other deputies returned fire and killed the suspect; and

WHEREAS, On April 24, 2011, Deputy Taylor's radio number 156 and badge number 1822 were retired; and

WHEREAS, On October 12, 2015, an organization by the name of "Saving a Hero's Place" presented a hand-made memorial chair in Deputy Taylor's honor to the Johnson County Sheriff's Office; and

WHEREAS, Deputy Taylor's Memorial Chair was placed in the Johnson County Sheriff's Office Patrol Deputies' Room where it remains today.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT I, Roger Harmon, County Judge of Johnson County, we the Commissioners of the four Precincts in Johnson County, and Bob L. Alford, Sheriff of Johnson County, do hereby proclaim that Deputy Clifton Taylor's Memorial Chair will remain as permanent property of the Johnson County Sheriff's Office, and will remain in the Patrol Deputies' Room from this day forward to be a daily reminder to his co-workers, ensuring that Deputy Taylor will always have a place saved for him at the Johnson County Sheriff's Office.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I hereto set my hand and cause the Seal of Johnson County, Texas to be affixed on this the 23rd day of November 2015.

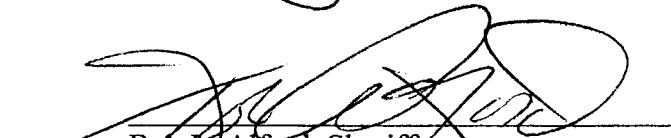

Roger Harmon, Johnson County Judge
