

Darren G Yancy, Sr
Professional Bio

Darren G Yancy, Sr is the Managing Partner for Yancy Insurance & Consulting Group. LP (YICGLP). YICGLP is a family partnership and holding company for operating companies under the management of Darren and his wife Carol for over 20 years. They have 3 companies owned in whole or in part by YICGLP. The first company conducts business brokerage, commercial real estate, and risk management consulting. The second is a new manufacturer of paper products, pneumatics, and weapons. This company also had an active retail insurance agency until it was sold in 2014. The third company is an international company that will be handling overseas transactions for the domestic operations. Darren is currently an executive officer in 2 of the companies and chief financial officer for all 3.

Darren also serves on the Board of Directors as well a Director of Government Relations and Project Development for a fledgling renewable energy company.

Darren's background experience includes personnel and operations management, government relations, finance and accounting for operations, organization of high risk insurance captives, risk assessment & management, claims management, business brokerage including capital funding, placement of commercial insurance products, and commercial real estate sales.

Darren's current projects include a risk management contract for a multinational hotel group as well as the launch of a new line of suppressors for the manufacturing company in the fall of 2016.

Darren holds a Bachelors of Business Administration in Finance & Accounting from the University of Texas at Arlington School of Business. Darren also holds the following licenses: Texas Property & Casualty Adjuster, Texas General Lines Property & Casualty, Texas General Lines Life & Health, Texas Managing General Agent, Texas Real Estate Broker, Federal Firearms Licensee as Dealer, Manufacturer, and Importer. Darren was Registered Representative with a Series 6 license from 1995 to 2007.

Darren and his wife Carol celebrate 25 years of marriage this year. They live on their ranchette in Burleson with their 4 children Dane, Zach, Brenna, and Gene.