Payment shall be made pursuant to Chapter 2251 Texas Government Code

Pursuant to Texas Government Code Section 2251.021 and this Amendment, a payment by a governmental entity under a contract is overdue on the 31st day after the later of:

- (1) the date the governmental entity receives the goods under the contract;
- (2) the date the performance of the service under the contract is completed; or
- (3) the date the governmental entity receives an invoice for the goods or service.

Pursuant to Texas Government Code Section 2251.025 and this Amendment, A payment begins to accrue interest on the date the payment becomes overdue. The rate of interest that accrues on an overdue payment is the rate in effect on September 1 of the fiscal year in which the payment becomes overdue. The rate in effect on September 1 is equal to the sum of:

- (1) one percent; and
- (2) the prime rate as published in the Wall Street Journal on the first day of July of the preceding fiscal year that does not fall on a Saturday or Sunday.

Interest on an overdue payment stops accruing on the date the governmental entity or vendor mails or electronically transmits the payment

Sec. 2251.027. PAYMENT OF INTEREST BY POLITICAL SUBDIVISION.

- (a) A political subdivision shall compute interest imposed on the political subdivision under this chapter.
- (b) The political subdivision shall pay the interest at the time payment is made on the principal.
- (c) The political subdivision shall submit the interest payment with the net amount due for the goods or service.
- (d) The political subdivision may not require a vendor to petition, bill, or wait an additional day to receive the interest due.
- (e) The political subdivision may not require a vendor or subcontractor to agree to waive the vendor's or subcontractor's right to interest under this chapter as a condition of the contract between the parties.

The SERVICE PROVIDER shall retain all applicable records for a minimum of seven (7) years following the closure of the most recent audit report and until any outstanding litigation, audit, or claim has been resolved.

The SERVICE PROVIDER shall establish a set of records that comply with the requirements of the TJJJ contract and will allow access to any records necessary to monitor performance under this contract by the County, TJJJ or any state or federal agency authorized to inspect the same.

Contract Non-Compliance and Termination Provisions

Termination: The COUNTY may terminate this Contract, or any portion thereof, as a result of the SERVICE PROVIDER's noncompliance or nonperformance with any covenant, assurance, term, or condition of this Contract, including documents incorporated herein by reference.

All licenses, legal certification, or inspections required for the services, facilities, equipment, or materials, must be complied with by the SERVICE PROVIDER. Failure to comply with this requirement shall be treated as a default.

Termination for Cause: The County shall have the right to terminate the contract for any reason including but not limited to: failure to provide required records, failure to complete assigned tasks in a timely manner, insufficient data to process pay requests, not meeting performance standards, and falsification of documents. The Director of Johnson County Juvenile Services as well as the Johnson County Juvenile Board are authorized to determine that a contract should be terminated for cause and to send a notice of termination of contract. Notice of termination will be given by mailing or by personal delivery or by email of written notice to the SERVICE PROVIDER not less than 15 days prior to the date that may be designated as the date of termination for cause.

Termination without Cause: This Contract may be terminated by either party upon sixty (60) calendar days' notice to the other party of termination Termination by Mutual Agreement: The COUNTY and the SERVICE PROVIDER may mutually agree in writing signed by both parties to terminate this Contract at any time.

Law and Venue: This contract will be governed by and construed according to the laws of the State of Texas. Venue for any action or claim arising out of the Agreement must be in the state district courts in Johnson County, Texas or the federal district courts in Dallas County, Texas. Any provision stating that County agrees to waive any right to trial by jury is hereby deleted.

Miscellaneous Provisions:

Open Records: This contract shall be subject to the Texas Government Code Section 552.001 et seq., (Open Records Act), as amended. If any provision in this agreement is in conflict with this Tex. Govt. Code, Section 552.001, the same shall be of no force and effect. Furthermore, it is expressly understood and agreed that Johnson County, its officers, and employees may request advice, decisions, and opinions of the Attorney General of the State of Texas in regard to the application of the Open Records Act.

Limitation on the Right to Bring Action: The laws of the State of Texas, Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code, Section 16.070, as amended shall govern limitations for the right of SERVICE PROVIDER to bring an action, regardless of form.

Claim for Future Revenue: Under Texas Law, a contract with a governmental entity that contains a claim against future revenues is void; thus any provision to the contrary is void.

Indemnification: It is understood and agreed that the County cannot enter into a contract whereby the County agrees to indemnify, or hold harmless any other party, thus any provision to the contrary is void.

Affirmative Action: The SERVICE PROVIDER will take affirmative action to ensure any and all applicants are employed and treated during employment without regard to their race, religion, color, sex, national origin, age or handicap.

Workplace Guidelines and Confidentiality: The SERVICE PROVIDER shall adopt and implement workplace guidelines concerning persons with AIDS and HIV infection and shall also develop and implement guidelines regarding confidentiality of AIDS and HIV related medical information for employees, clients, staff, and juvenile referrals from the County.

No Person or Pecuniary Interest: No officer, member, or employee of the County or Johnson County, and no member of its governing body and no other public officials of the governing body of the locality or localities in which the project is situated or being carried out who exercises any functions or responsibilities in the review or approval of the undertaking or carrying out of this project shall participate in any decision relating to this agreement which affects his/her personal interest, have any personal or pecuniary interest, direct or indirect, in the contract and the proceeds thereof.

No Discrimination: The SERVICE PROVIDER certifies compliance with all terms, provisions, and requirements of Titles VI and VII, Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, and any other Federal State, local or other anti-discriminatory act, law, statute, or regulation and in the performance of this contract, will not discriminate against any child or youth, client, employee or applicant for employment because of race, creed, religion, age sex, color, national or ethical origin, handicap, or any other illegal discriminatory basis or criteria.

Space for Service: The County agrees to provide space at the Juvenile Services facility for evaluations as necessary and to provide executed releases of information.

No Subpoena Required for Testimony: Upon reasonable request from Johnson County Juvenile Services or the Johnson County Attorney's Office, Service Provider's employees and agents who have contact with juveniles and their families or who provide program services shall testify in court and shall NOT require a subpoena or fail to testify based upon lack of a subpoena, or residing, working, or otherwise being beyond the range of a subpoena.

This contract shall automatically terminate on the contract expiration date except as set forth in the automatic renewal provision or upon depletion of funding. All services billed hereunder must be rendered within the contract period.
