HOME CARE AND HOSPICE MONTH

WHEREAS, many Texans suffering from illness or injuries receive quality care from dedicated health care professionals in hospitals or other facilities, some Texans need or prefer a more comfortable, intimate setting; and

WHEREAS, In the middle of this pandemic, home care and hospice has been a focal point for one of the greatest health care services providing dedicated healthcare professionals who provide vital services throughout the Lone Star State.

WHEREAS, home care and hospice organizations meet this need by providing individualized and professional medical care and assistance to the elderly, disabled and chronically ill. The simple yet powerful comfort of a home setting is a key feature of these services that offer excellent care that helps patients achieve a better quality of life; and

WHEREAS, during the month of November, an awareness campaign is conducted to highlight home care and hospice as alternatives to hospitalization and other forms of institutional health care; home care and hospice professionals help their patients live every day to its fullest, and it is important for their commitment and skill to be recognized and commended; and

WHEREAS, we encourage all Texans to learn more about home care and hospice options and the invaluable contributions of all Texas health care providers.

NOW THEREFORE, WE, THE JOHNSON COUNTY COMMISSIONERS COURT, do hereby proclaim November, 2021 as:

“HOME CARE AND HOSPICE MONTH”

In Johnson County and encourage the support and participation of all citizens in learning more about the home care and hospice philosophy of care for the elderly, disabled and the terminally ill.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I hereto set my hand and cause the Seal of Johnson County, Texas to be affixed on this, the 8th day of November 2021.
