PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENTS

PA1. Announcements from County Commissioners Regarding County and Precinct Events

Comm. Bailey stated that many people suffered storm damage from the storm Saturday night, and they will be working diligently to clean up the fallen trees and other debris. Comm. Bailey also announced he would be heading back down to Austin this week to talk to the State Legislature.

Comm. Woolley commented there were lots of roads closed and downed power lines and it would be a slow cleanup.

Comm. Bailey commented that the Tire Collection Event will still be happening in Pct. 1 regardless of the weather.

Comm. Howell stated that last Saturday, at the Tire Collection Event for Pct. 2, 3,000 tires were collected, and two 50 ft. trailers were filled up in one day.

Comm. Woolley commented on how nice the event was Saturday with Mrs. Neeley at the Oakland Cemetery for the dedication of a Historical Marker.

County Judge Boedeker added a few words of appreciation to the Commissioners and Jamie Moore. He commented on how well they handled the storm on Saturday and kept the public informed and safe.

PA2. Update on Springfest and General Business from the Johnson County Historical Commission

Sandra Neeley, Chair of the Johnson County Historical Commission, gave an update on Springfest and General Business from the Johnson County Historical Commission to the Court.

PA3. Update on the Status of the Construction/Renovation of County Buildings by Joshua Green, Facilities Management Director

Facilities Management Director, Josh Green gave a status update to the Court.

Comm. Bailey recommended that the buildings be looked over for damage from the storm on Saturday.

PUBLIC PARTICIPATION

Fernando Rodriguez addressed the Court in regard to the Johnson County Property taxes and tax rates. He requested help and support from the Court.

Craig Hundley addressed the Court in regard to the Appraisal Values going up in Johnson County. He asked for support and fair representation to aid with fair property assessment.
