RESOLUTION

RESOLUTION HONORING THE PURCHASING DEPARTMENT FOR RECEIVING THE NATIONAL PROCUREMENT INSTITUTE'S
2023 ACHIEVEMENT OF EXCELLENCE IN PROCUREMENT AWARD

WHEREAS, government procurement is a highly technical field that requires expertise in state and national rules and regulations in order to ensure ethical, transparent, and efficient use of public funds; and

WHEREAS, the National Procurement Institute is a nationally recognized trade organization that establishes best practices in government procurement with a focus on exceeding minimum standards and constantly improving the procurement process; and

WHEREAS, the Achievement of Excellence in Procurement Award is awarded to entities that successfully implement these evolving best practices to the benefit of their constituents; and

WHEREAS, out of thousands of political subdivisions eligible to apply, less than 200 entities nationwide were selected to receive the 2023 Achievement of Excellence in Procurement Award; and

WHEREAS, for the 8th consecutive year, the Johnson County Purchasing Department has been awarded the Achievement in Excellence in Procurement Award due to their innovation, professionalism, productivity, leadership, and embrace of e-procurement.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that Johnson County does hereby honor Johnson County Purchasing Agent Ralph McBroom for his leadership of the Purchasing Department as well as the employees of the Purchasing Department whose hard work, dedication, and professionalism have earned them this national recognition.

DONE IN OPEN COURT THIS 27TH DAY OF NOVEMBER, 2023.

August 5, 2023

The Honorable Judge William Bosworth
Johnson County
204 South Buffalo Street
Cleburne, TX 76033

Dear Judge William Bosworth,

I am pleased to inform you that your agency's procurement department has earned the 2023 Achievement of Excellence in Procurement® Award. The continuously evolving AEP criteria are designed to measure and provide benchmarks for public procurement best practices.

The Johnson County is one of 194 agencies in the United States and Canada and one of 45 Counties to receive the award.

We encourage you to share this prestigious award with your governing body and organization. A sample press release is also available on our website at <https://www.npi-aep.org/aep-media-library>

Congratulations on the 28th Annual 2023 Achievement of Excellence in Procurement® Award!

Sincerely,

Brian P. Garrity, CPSM, C.P.M., CPPB
Achievement of Excellence in Procurement® Award Officer

cc: Mr. Ralph McBroom, C.P.M., Purchasing Agent

The Achievement of Excellence in Procurement® recognizes organizational excellence in public and non-profit procurement. The award criteria are designed to measure innovation, professionalism, e-procurement, productivity, and leadership attributes of the procurement function. The Achievement of Excellence in Procurement® is sponsored by the National Procurement Institute (NPI), the California Association of Public Procurement Officials (CAPPO), the Canadian Public Procurement Council / Conseil canadien des marchés publics (CPPC), the Florida Association of Public Procurement Officials (FAPPO), the Government Finance Officers Association (GFOA), the National Association of Educational Procurement (NAEP), NIGP: The Institute for Public Procurement and the Texas Public Purchasing Association (TxPPA).

The Johnson County Purchasing Department has received the 2023 Achievement of Excellence in Procurement Award (AEP) from the National Procurement Institute for the 8th consecutive year.

The continuously evolving AEP criteria are designed to measure and provide benchmarks for public procurement best practices. Johnson County Purchasing has met the requirements when the bar has been raised over the past 8 years and is committed to continuous improvement to achieve best in class performance.

Johnson County is one of 194 agencies in the United States and Canada and one of 45 Counties to receive the award.

The award recognizes organizational excellence in public procurement. It highlights purchasing departments that incorporate innovation, professionalism, e-procurement, productivity and leadership attributes in their procurement efforts.
