PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENTS

PA1. Announcements from County Commissioners Regarding County and Precinct Events

Comm. Woolley stated that Johnson County is meeting with state and federal elected officials regarding the biosolids and PFAS issues in Grandview. He commented that other counties are getting involved because they have similar problems and want to be a part of this effort. He stated that the Van Zandt County Judge reached out to him last week about another contractor who wants to put a biosolids plant in their county. Comm. Woolley added that the Judge had asked him to testify in a public hearing in July. He continued stating that the ball is rolling but it will be a slow uphill battle. He stated that he also met with Commissioner Sid Miller with the Texas Department of Agriculture as PFAS is one of the next big things for water quality and environmental concerns, not only in the state but in the nation. Comm. Woolley stated that Dr. Bennett was interviewed by a radio station in Germany about Johnson County's case. He said that since Johnson County stepped out and did testing and they have hard data now, that is the first step in a long process of getting something done. Comm. Woolley stated that he wanted to give an update and that it is not a dead issue by any means.

PA2. Update on Status of the Construction/Renovation of County Buildings by Joshua Green, Facilities Management Director

Facilities Management Director Joshua Green presented. He stated that with the drier weather, they can get started on the new roofs for this facility (The Historic Courthouse), the Extension Office, the Elections Building, and the Marti Building.

Judge Boedeker stated that last year we had some pretty significant hailstorms and through the blessing of insurance we are getting new roofs on most of the county buildings.
