The San Antonio Annual Meeting features a 16-hour educational program covering various aspects of the probate system, including citation and notice under the Estates Code, guardianship law, dependent and independent administration procedures, heirship procedures, the monitoring of administrations and guardianships, responsibilities of the probate clerk, reporting requirements for courts and clerks, and Texas mental health law.

The annual meeting also includes a Wednesday add-on session, as well as a review of recent cases in the areas of probate administration, guardianship, trust, and mental health law.

TEXAS COLLEGE OF PROBATE JUDGES IS A PRIVATE, NON-PROFIT EDUCATIONAL ORGANIZATION
