N-LECCC 2025

The 2025 National Law Enforcement and Corporate Crimes Convention is three and one-half days of dynamic training presented by nationally renowned instructors along with industry experts. We provide a broad array of investigative training for law enforcement and corporate security professionals while promoting the value of partnerships. Collaboration has never been more important between law enforcement and the private sector. Convention attendees represent federal, state and local law enforcement. Law enforcement analysts, prosecutors and other criminal justice professionals are encouraged to attend. Corporate security professionals of financial institutions, armored transportation companies, cell phone providers and other retail establishments will not want to miss this event.
