Dear Texas Justices of the Peace,

We are pleased to invite you to attend the FREE 2025 Judicial Summit on Mental Health, taking place October 7-8, 2025, at the Royal Sonesta Houston Galleria. Hosted by the Texas Judicial Commission on Mental Health (JCMH), a permanent commission of the Supreme Court of Texas and the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals, this annual Summit brings together judges, attorneys, behavioral health professionals, and policymakers from across Texas to explore solutions and best practices at the intersection of mental health and the justice system.

This year's program will offer valuable insight into:

- Recent developments in the law related to mental health and intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD);
- Innovative court-based strategies to address mental illness in the justice system;
- Cross-system collaboration to improve outcomes for individuals with complex needs;
- Ethical considerations in cases involving behavioral health issues;
- Practical tools to support judicial decision-making and court management;
- View the Agenda-at-a-Glance for more session topics.

The Summit will provide actionable knowledge and a unique opportunity to engage with colleagues committed to improving justice for individuals with mental health needs. To learn more and register, please visit the 2025 JCMH Summit webpage. The Summit can be attended either in-person or virtually. In-person spots are quickly filling up, so register today to secure your spot! CLE credits are available; we don't know the exact number yet, but last year, 9.75 hours of credit were available.
