The Johnson County Sheriff's Office (JCSO) seeks to courts approval to apply for funding under the Office of Justice Assistance FY25 Community Based Violence Intervention and Prevention Initiative (CVIPI) to reduce violent crime and strengthen public trust through a coordinated, community-driven approach. Johnson County, has experienced persistent challenges with violent offenses including aggravated assaults, domestic violence, and youth-related gang activity. By combining real-time crime analysis with evidence-based approaches, JCSO will target the small number of individuals and places most responsible for violent incidents.
