From Court Reporting to CART/Captioning: What You Don't Know (Yet)

Presenter: Heidi C. Thomas
1.5 CE hours

CART Captioning demands specialized skills veteran court reporters often don't see coming. You've mastered the record, but realtime CART/Captioning asks for something more. Until you've explored the critical differences between court reporting and realtime captioning, you don't know what you don't know. This story-driven seminar explores realtime captioning through the eyes of a veteran captioner. Hear firsthand accounts, including eight intense weeks providing captioning for a deaf U.S. Attorney during a federal racketeering conspiracy trial. Explore differences between court reporting and CART captioning, strategies for supporting deaf or hard-of-hearing consumers, and why the transition is a journey, not a leap.

When the Record Matters: Ethics, Accuracy, and the Human Advantage

Presenter: Hon. Tammy Kemp
1.5 CE hours (Ethics/Rules)

Human reflection and recollection has proven to be fallible. We live in an age of alternative facts, sound bites and inaccurate sensational reporting which necessitate a clear, complete, accurate record of the proceedings. Consequences may impact every party involved in the proceeding and may be immediate and irreversible. The court reporter's record makes the difference between confusion and clarity, delay and decision, justice and error. The court reporter's record also presents immediate and moment-by-moment opportunity for review.

Handle with Care: Best Practices in Evidence Handling

Presenters: Charletta Breed and Dee Dee Jones
1.5 CE hours (Ethics/Rules)

This session will provide an overview of proper evidence handling, including marking, clear documentation, uploading, and maintaining the integrity of evidence, both during and after proceedings. Attendees will learn essential procedures for retaining exhibits and transferring them to the appropriate clerk or law enforcement agency in compliance with applicable rules. Designed as a practical refresher, this session highlights common pitfalls and promotes confidence in managing evidence from introduction through final disposition.

Building an Efficient Team Workflow for Greater Flexibility and Productivity

Presenter: Heather J. Bautista
1.5 CE hours

In this session, Heather J. Bautista, CSR, will walk through the systems and strategies her and her team use to create a highly efficient workflow. By streamlining processes and prioritizing collaboration, their approach supports faster turnaround times—including rough drafts and expedited copy—while allowing team members more flexibility and balance in their day-to-day work.

The Importance of Accurate and Timely Reporter's Records at the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals - and a few stories

Presenter: Hon. Kevin Patrick Yeary
1.0 CE hour (Ethics/Rules)
This session will discuss some important timelines for preparation and filing of records on appeal. It will also include some reflections on specific cases where timelines have not been followed or other problems have arisen.

Beyond the Usual Docket: Understanding Probate Proceedings

Presenter: Hon. Claudia Laird
1.0 CE hour (Ethics/Rules)
The session will focus on matters encountered in guardianship, probate, and mental health proceedings. Attendees will learn how these proceedings differ from those handled in other types of courts. After attending the session, attendees will have a better understanding regarding these important proceedings and the exhibits they might expect to receive.

Guardians of the Record: Motions to Seal

Presenter: Brittney Aaron
1.0 CE hour (Ethics/Rules)
In criminal proceedings, there is no undo button. Once something is in the record, it may be public unless it is properly sealed. This session explores how motions to seal function in real-world courtroom settings and what must happen to truly protect sensitive information. Court reporters will learn how to recognize sealing issues as they arise and how their role is critical in preserving confidentiality. If it's not clear in the record, it's not protected.
