County Auditor Steve Watson stated that he wanted to pull the Providence Engineering Bill from the ARPA payment. He noted that the City of Rio Vista still has some money in their ARPA account that has not been paid out to Providence, so the amount is incorrect.

Judge Boedeker asked if that would come off the Bill Run.

Mr. Watson confirmed.

Judge Boedeker stated that there was a typo on CA29 and that "Central County Personal" should read "Central Count Personal."

Comm. Woolley commented that he wanted to discuss and possibly pull CA38. He noted that there was no one here from the task force and that there appeared to be some discrepancies regarding the check numbers when looking at the attachments. He also noted that the Treasurer had not received a response from Burleson PD regarding seized gift cards.

Judge Boedeker stated that CA38 would be removed from the Consent Agenda and voted on separately.

Comm. Bailey commented regarding CA8, CA10, and the group that spoke earlier during Public Participation.

MOTION by Comm. Bailey to approve the Consent Agenda as presented with the extractions of those that Comm. Woolley and yourself (the County Judge) have discussed.
