COMMISSIONER'S COURT

BE IT KNOWN that on the 13th day of November 2013, the Honorable Commissioner's Court of Johnson County, Texas, met in Special Session at 206 N. Baugh, Alvarado, Johnson County, Texas, for the purpose of transacting any and all business that may lawfully be brought before the same. The meeting was called to order at 10:00 A.M., with all members present, and following the Invocation led by County Judge Roger Harmon, the following item, having been lawfully posted and filed for record in the Office of the County Clerk on November 7, 2013 at 1:09 P.M., was considered:

I. GROUNDBREAKING CEREMONY FOR THE JOHNSON COUNTY
ALVARADO SUB-COURTHOUSE

Commissioner's Court conducted a Groundbreaking Ceremony for the Johnson County Alvarado Sub-Courthouse to be located at 206 N. Baugh, Alvarado, Texas. County Judge Roger Harmon said this project was a long time coming. He thanked Commissioner Jerry Stringer, Precinct #3 for helping to make this happen. Alan Magee, Magee Architects, L.P., said it was a privilege to work with the Johnson County Commissioner's Court and the citizens of Alvarado on this project. Alan Magee recognized some elected officials: Comm. Rick Bailey, Precinct #1; Comm. Kenny Howell, Precinct #2; Comm. Jerry Stringer, Precinct #3; Comm. Don Beeson, Precinct #4; Constable Mike White, Precinct #3; Judge Pat Jacobs, Precinct #3; numerous City of Alvarado officials; John and Michael Percifield of Alvarado; and Scott Porter, Tax Assessor/Collector, who was not present. Judge Harmon recognized Becky Williams, County

Clerk for all that she and her office does for the County. Commissioner Jerry Stringer said he was very excited to be there and he thanked the Commissioner's Court for giving him the authority to spearhead this project. He said this new building will allow the County to grow in the future and should serve the County well for the next 20 to 25 years. Judge Jacobs only had one thing to say, "Hallelujah". Judge Jacobs acknowledged her staff and Constable White acknowledged his staff.

The Groundbreaking Ceremony concluded with pictures taken by members of the local newspapers.

There being no further business before the Court concerning this agenda, Commissioner's Court adjourned at 10:14 A.M.
