The Continuing Education for Constables (CEC) program provides elected and appointed constables with essential updates and professional development in law enforcement. Mandated by the Texas Legislature every four years, the program ensures participants remain informed on legislative developments, new rules, and form changes from the Texas Commission on Law Enforcement (TCOLE). It also offers training in leadership, management, and operational excellence. Core topics include Advanced Law Enforcement Rapid Response Training (ALERRT), TCOLE updates, administrative and financial management, technology and operational strategies, and leadership and professionalism, all aimed at enhancing effectiveness, accountability, and service to the public.
