The 2026 National Law Enforcement and Corporate Crimes Convention (N-LECCC) offers three and a half days of dynamic, high-impact investigative training presented by nationally recognized instructors and industry experts. Designed for law enforcement and corporate investigators, the convention emphasizes collaboration between public and private sectors, to address complex crimes. Attendees include federal, state, and local law enforcement, prosecutors, analysts, and corporate investigators from retail, financial, and private industries. Training sessions cover crimes related to violence, retail, financial, fraud and cyber-crimes. Corporate professionals, financial institutions, retail establishments and armored transportation companies will gain valuable insights, tools, and partnerships that strengthen prevention, response, and recovery efforts. The N-LECCC continues its mission to enhance investigative capabilities and operational effectiveness nationwide.
